

Careers in Psychology

The British
Psychological Society

Tuesday 4 December November 2018

The Tower Hotel, London

09:30	Registration and Exhibition
10:30	Welcome and Introduction
10:45	Keynote Presentation My route into clinical psychology and beyond Dr Gemima Fitzgerald Thrive Clinical Psychology and Resilience Consultancy Ltd
11:30	Division Panel Discussion Representatives from some of the BPS Divisions will speak about their careers and their specialisms within psychology. You are invited to ask questions about careers in psychology and seek the advice of the panel on specialist training routes
12:15	Lunch, Exhibition and Meet the Speakers
13:15	Keynote Presentation Embarking on a career as a psychology researcher Dr Emma Norris University College London
14:00	Keynote Presentation What can occupational psychology teach you about careers: Evidence and experiences Dr Vicki Elsey Northumbria University
14:45	Break, Exhibition and Meet the Speakers
15:15	Speaker Panel Discussion Is there anything you wanted to find out about psychology careers that hasn't been covered yet? This is your opportunity to ask the speakers any final questions that you may have, or to follow up any topics that the speakers mentioned in their talks
16:00	Event Close