

Treasurer attributes

Essential

- Understanding of issues relating to managing the finances of a department/ committee
- Track record of having numeracy and organisational skills and attention to detail
- Able to liaise with BPS finance and related departments to uphold the best interests of the DHP membership
- Able to communicate with people at various levels of experience and seniority
- BPS Chartered Health Psychologist (or eligible)
- Able to liaise with other sub-committee chairs to promote and work collaboratively to support the DHP work
- Be committed to working to the goals of the DHP
- Ability to be released from work to attend (reasonable number) of meetings relating to this role over the term of office
- Committed to represent the variety of membership within the DHP
- Committed to uphold and maintain the highest standards for Health Psychology

Desirable

- Experience of participating as a member of a DHP (sub)committee
- Experience of acting as a treasurer of a department, voluntary organisation or other relevant experience
- Experience of taking responsibility or holding senior positions