

Register of Applied Psychology
Practice Supervisors (RAPPS) Society-approved training courses

The British Psychological Society

Promoting excellence in psychology

These supervision training courses should be individually certified and awarded separate to the accredited postgraduate doctorate by institutions. Certificates should always include the Society's Professional Development Centre (PDC) Approval logo.

Other training providers offering supervisor training that reflects the standards for RAPPS will need to apply for CPD Approval to have their training in this list.
