

Psychology in the classroom

A wonderful selection of podcasts by Lucinda Powell from Changing States of Mind. These include:

The effectiveness of mental health interventions in schools
Neuropsychology for teachers
Thought control and working memory
Cues to recall
How teenagers learn
What is cognitive psychology
Long-term and short-term memory
Positivity in the classroom
Learning to learn

And coming soon a series of podcasts linked to Special Educational Needs (SEN).
