

Division of Forensic Psychology Annual Conference

The British
Psychological Society
Division of Forensic Psychology

DRAFT PROGRAMME

Tuesday 14 June

	Brueton Suite	The Eversfield	Gloucester 1	Gloucester 2
10:00	Registration Opens – Malvern Suite
11:15-12:00	Division of Forensic Psychology AGM – The Eversfield
11:30-12:30	Lunch and Refreshments – Malvern Suite & Park Bar (desserts with Exhibition)
12:30-12:40	Welcome & Conference opening – Brueton Suite Geraldine Akerman, Division Chair
12:40-13:40	Keynote Presentation – Brueton Suite Mary O'Donnell Diversity and Inclusion OPD Programme London
13:45	AWARD Winners Symposium 2021 and 2022 Dr Caitlin Brown	Implementing trauma-informed practice with young men in custody: current research and practice at HMYOI Aylesbury Kate Geraghty-Convenor	An overview of the Early Awareness Stalking Intervention (EASI) pilot project and its evaluation	“Don't Tell Me to Smile”: A Mixed Methods Approach on Public Sexual Harassment During Lockdown, Coping Mechanisms, and Its Effects

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

		HMYOI Aylesbury Pathways OPD Service (1). Young male prisoner's experiences of trauma using IPA: 'Trauma is every day' Rachel O'Rourke HMYOI Aylesbury	Tom Page Rachael Wheatley & Kritika Jerath University of Derby	on Women and Non-Binary Individuals' Mobility In the UK Anastasia Tsioukanara Coventry University
14:05	Dr Kerensa Hocken	(2). Developing a Trauma Pathway within a Young Offenders Institution: using sequenced tasks as described by the Trauma Recovery Model (TRM) Chantal Scaillet HMYOI Aylesbury	Trauma Focused Therapy in North-West prisons: a new service model Lisa Wright & Mark Walton Mersey care NHS Foundation Trust	Public Understanding of Coercive Control in Northern Ireland Susan Lagdon et al Ulster University
14:25		(3). Towards seeing yourself differently: doing, being, becoming and belonging Kwaku Aygemang HMYOI Aylesbury	Sensory Suitcase Implementation in an OPD Treatment Service : How helpful is it ? Alison Hodgson, & Rose Ward Tees, Usk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	ENHANCE project: Older adult forensic mental health patients: defining needs, barriers, facilitators and 'what works' Chris Griffiths Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust
14:45	2022 award winners	(4). Using the Power Threat Meaning Framework to formulate complex behaviours and distress with young people in prison Ana Dias HMYOI Aylesbury	Professional Quality of Life in Staff Working with Complex Personality Difficulties: An Exploratory Analysis Rachel Earnshaw & Jennifer Tomlinson Tees, Usk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	The role of the Internet in radicalisation and offending for individuals convicted of extremist offences Jonathan Kenyon HMPPS
15:05	2022 award winners	(5). The utility of the 'Tree of Life' trauma intervention with young men in prison Rose Simonet HMYOI Aylesbury	The Minoritised Experience of Use of Force in Custody Ekta Mistry, & Rachele Murphy HMP Lowdham Grange	Staff attitudes towards the challenging behaviour of service users with complex needs: are attributional beliefs related to levels of individual resilience?

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

			Karen Slade, Nottingham Trent University	Michelle Smith University of Lincoln Kerenza MacLennan Elysium Healthcare
15:25	2022 award winners	Impact of Risk Assessment and Offender Characteristics on Lay People's Fairness in Judgement and Sentencing of Violent Offenders Leah Stainsby & Tochukwu Onwuegbusi University of Lincoln	Characteristics of Technology Assisted Adolescent Dating Abuse (TAADA) perpetrators – A Rapid Evidence Assessment Faith Dale HMPPS	The relationship between dual role conflict and stress in staff working with forensic clients: an exploratory study Abbie Chambers HMP Lowdham Grange Michelle Smith University of Lincoln
15:45-16:15	Refreshment Break - Exhibition, Malvern Suite
16:15	A symposium exploring the nature and function of paraphilic sexual interests Ross Bartels -Convenor University of Lincoln (1) The Function of Sexual Fantasies and their Relationship with Developmental Factors Karolina Wojcik University of Lincoln	A professional project? A short history of psychologists in English prisons 1954-2021. Sophie Ellis Cambridge University	EMDR (Eye Movement Desensitisation and Reprocessing) therapy for childhood sexual abuse memories in men who have sexually offended against children: changes in perceptions of abuse and offending Lisa Wright & Jessica Palmer Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust	Workshop The Interactive Case Profile for Forensic Practitioners (ICP-FP): A new foundation for forensic case formulation, reflection, collaboration and goal setting David Glasgow Child and Family Training & Nottingham Trent University
16:35	(2) Exhibitionism Proclivity, Sexual Fantasy Functions, and Primary Human Goods Courteney Ferguson University of Lincoln		Horses and emotions: a study regarding the impact of working with horses on emotional regulation and violence/antisocial behaviour in young adults in custody. Rebecca Pieri Serco

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

16:55	(3) Somnophilia: Attraction to a Sleep State or Specific Behaviours? Elizabeth Deehan University of Lincoln	What are the effects of Hyperfocus on offending behaviour in adults and adolescents and how effective are interventions for this? A Systematic Review Rachel Worthington UCLAN and MMU & Suzanne Wheeler MMU	Exploring the impact of Animal Therapy on prisoner wellbeing Shannon Batt Serco
17:15-17:35		“Wanting to feel connected”; Prisoners self-harming experiences in a UK Category B Prison during the COVID-19 pandemic Becky Johnson Serco	Self-formulation and Practitioner Training Nicola Bowes, & Louise Coates Cardiff Metropolitan University	The Empirical State of Forensic Case Formulation: Why Don’t We Understand? Victoria Wheable Swansea University and OPD Pathway
18:00-19:00	DFP Awards Presentations – Brueton Suite
19:00-20:00	Wine & Canapé Reception & Poster Presentations

Wednesday 15 June

	Brueton Suite	The Eversfield	Gloucester 1	Gloucester 2
08:15	Registration Opens – Malvern Suite
09:00	The prevalence of unwanted and non-consensual sexual experiences amongst students attending two Northern Irish universities	Invited Workshop Bringing compassion into the Crown Court: clinical and practical considerations for forensic psychological assessments	Workshop: New approaches to suicide and self-harm prevention for non-specialist staff: Support and Safety Planning	A symposia on the development of a stepped care treatment pathway for individuals that have engaged in stalking behaviour Christopher Rosenbrier-Convenor

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

	Ngozi Anyadike-Danes Ulster University & Megan Reynolds Queens University Belfast	Louise Bowers and Chris (expert by experience)	Karen Slade Nottingham Trent University Amy Beck Probation Service	Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust 1) The prevalence, demographics and typologies of individuals detained within a secure inpatient service that have engaged in stalking behaviour Ruweina Watson Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust
09:20	The role of intermediaries at Parole Board Oral Hearings Brendan O'Mahony & Becky Milne University of Portsmouth & Kevin Smith National Crime Agency			(2) A study into clinicians self-reported knowledge and competence for working with individuals that have engaged in stalking behaviour across an NHS forensic directorate Sophie Tyrrell Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust
09:40	Working with trauma and attachment through the COVID-19 pandemic: Learnings and developments in a high secure Offender Personality Disorder Pathway service Warren Dennis Cambridgeshire & Peterborough NHS Foundation Trust			(3) The development of appropriate treatment pathways for those who engage in stalking behaviour in the UK Claire Bainbridge Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

10:00	Pornography use and its impact: A cross-cultural study of British and Chinese women Simon Duff & Ying Liu University of Nottingham		A Call to Use Psychology for Anti-Racist Jury Selection Imani Faber Bard College Berlin	(4) A stepped care pathway for individuals that have engaged in stalking behaviour within an NHS forensic directorate Michelle Small Tees, Esk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust
10:20	Lived experiences of voice-hearing for men who have been imprisoned in the UK: A phenomenological inquiry Claire Lewry Avon & Wiltshire Partnership Trust		Factors that inform clinical decision making about referral for Restorative Justice in Forensic Mental Health Settings James Tapp Kingston University London NHS	Testing the Efficacy of a Psychoeducational Intervention for Changing Public Attitudes Towards Individuals Convicted of Sexual Offences Amy Tran Serco
10:40-11:10	Refreshment Break – Exhibition, Malvern Suite
11:10-12:10	Keynote Presentation – Brueton Suite The challenges of desistance and harm reduction within the context of risk management and public protection. Professor Kieran McCartan University of Western England Bristol
12:10-13:10	Lunch and Refreshments – Malvern Suite & Park Bar (desserts with Exhibition)
13:10	Workshop Management of high- risk offenders with personality difficulties. The benefits of consultation and formulation for clarity and progression Laura McCraw & Samantha Crawford Tees Usk and Wear NHS Foundation Trust	Invited Workshop Helen O'Connor Workshop Compassion focussed therapy leadership	Workshop The role for Forensic Psychologists in the development of community-based psychologically informed environments in temporary accommodation services (homelessness) Sam Chu Nottingham Trent University
13:30				Exploring the impact of COVID-19 on self-harm and violence amongst a prison population: Research

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

				conducted using comparative data from six months pre-COVID-19 and six months during COVID-19 restrictions Adam Fedorniak Serco
13:50				Constructing fair lineups for distinctive suspects Georgia Roughton University of Birmingham
14:10	Incels: Murderous Misogynists or Lonely Lads? Brandon Sparks Kingston University London		Re-enacting Burglary Scripts in Virtual Reality Matthew King-Parker University of Lincoln	A systematic review of bias and its impact amongst forensic psychological and psychiatric experts Sam Chu Nottingham Trent University
14:30	The challenges and barriers to participating in interventions in custody for offenders with an acquired brain injury or learning disabilities and learning challenges (LDC), and implications for practice- A Rapid Evidence Assessment Heidi Marie HMPPS		Public Perceptions of Adolescents Engaged in Violent Extremism Bethan Harcourt HMP Whitemoor & Michelle Smith University of Lincoln	The function of denial, minimisation, justifying and blaming for Intimate Partner Violence perpetrators: A systematic review of the literature Madeline Smyth HMPPS, Sebastian Teicher & David Wilde Nottingham Trent University
14:50-15:20	Refreshment Break - Exhibition, Malvern Suite
15:20-16:20	Workshop Brain Friendly Passport Rachel Worthington University of Central Lancaster & Manchester Metropolitan University	Workshop Opening a Neurodiverse Wing at HMP Pentonville Varinder Pamesar BEH Mental Health Trust/HMP Pentonville	Symposium Trauma and Diversity within Forensic Services Abbie Woodhouse-convenor (1) {Ethnic Diversity in Community Based Forensic Support Services: An Audit}	Symposium Innovation and Trauma-Informed Developments in the Children and Young People Secure Estate (CYPSE) Annette McKeown Cumbria, Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

			Sophie Ryan NHS
15:40			(2) {Working with sex offenders with a history of sexual trauma: An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis exploring the role of clinician and client gender in the experience of forensic nursing staff} Abbie Woodhouse NHS	The SECURE STAIRS framework: Preliminary evaluation of the impact on therapeutic climate in a Secure Children's Home (SCH) Annette McKeown, Gemma Macmillan, Anna Smith, Sarah Atkinson, & Patrick Jack Kennedy
16:00			(3) {Developing the 'Working out Trauma Together' Intervention for Forensic Learning Disability Services} Michelle Small NHS	Technology and Innovation to Support Education and Psychological Well-Being in Young People in the Children and Young People Secure Estate (CYPSE) Annette McKeown, Robyn Lee, Gemma Macmillan, Dan Brown, Perry Sutherland, Aileen Conlon, Anthony Mitchell, Andrew Moss & Patrick Jack Kennedy
16:30-17:30	Keynote Presentation – Brueton Suite SCANR: the human future of 'lie detection' Kerry Daynes Investigative psychology
19:30	Pre-dinner drinks reception – Park Bar
20:00	Conference Dinner & Entertainment – Brueton Suite Pre-booking is a requirement for this event

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

Thursday 16 June

	Brueton Suite	The Eversfield	Gloucester 1	Gloucester 2
09:30	Registration Opens – Malvern Suite
10:00	Applying the Asymmetric Information Management (AIM) technique to virtual interviewing Cody Porter & Adam Harvey University of the West of England Bristol Rachel Taylor University of South Wales	Invited Workshop Workshop Counter Terrorism Tarek Younis Middlesex University	Decolonising Forensic Psychology: An Interactive Workshop Nic Bowes, Cardiff Metropolitan University , Rachael Dagnall University of Lincoln and Sophie Ellis, University of Cambridge	Using Substances ‘Gives me something’: A qualitative analysis of the reasons why Category B incarcerated individuals misuse substances Kacee Morton-Simmons Serco
10:20	The Personal and Professional Impact of Working with Young People in Custody: Exploring the Presence and Extent of Secondary Traumatic Stress Victoria Hancock Birmingham City University			Earwitness Identification: Individual differences in unfamiliar voice recognition Dolly Sunilkumar, Steve Kelly & David Robertson, University of Strathclyde
10:40	The Role of imagination on Burglary Behaviours Matthew King-Parker University of Lincoln			Service user views on how to approach trauma in the prison system Laura Cunningham and Emma Robinson Tees Usk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust
11:00	An exploration of procedural justice as experienced by Black people in prison using Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA)			Prisoners' experience of living with an in-cell computer Sally Tilt HMPPS & Nottingham Trent University

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.

	Ekta Mistry, & Rachele Murphy HMP Lowdham Grange Karen Slade, Nottingham Trent University
11:20	A comparison of the staff teams' experiences and attitudes towards trauma informed care at a PIPE approved premise and a non-PIPE approved premise, with exploration of resident experiences Chloe McKenzie University of Nottingham		What effects has the COVID-19 pandemic restrictions had on the frequencies of harmful behaviours in a Category B long-term high secure estate prison? Vicki Lee HMP Lowdham Grange	Move to improve: investigating the patient and staff experiences of moving to a new forensic hospital James Tapp Kingston university London NHS
11:40	A Service User's Journey Through Two Years of Restrictions in a Women's OPD Service Rachel Earnshaw & Alison Hodgson Tees Usk and Wear Valleys NHS Foundation Trust	Practitioner experiences of identifying and working with Child Criminal Exploitation Rachel Marcarlan University of Birmingham		Sexual offending in the workplace: Perspectives of perpetrators Jordan Brooks & Simon Duff University of Nottingham
12:00-12:30	Refreshment Break - Exhibition, Quayside Bar Area
12:30-13:30	Keynote Presentation – Brueton Suite Defendants with Autism Spectrum Disorder in Criminal Court: Important Considerations and Recommendations Dr Clare Allely University of Salford
13:30	Chair's Closing remarks and Conference close

Our conference programme is subject to change at any point before or during the conference itself. We are unable to accept responsibility for changes made which are outside of our control.