

the british psychological society
roinn saidhceòlais-oideachail
albannach

Programme Inter-Divisional Event

Covid Response in Scotland – Wellbeing provision for NHS staff and the public

24 September 2020 from 10.30am – 3.30pm

10.30am	Janet Fraser Event Chair	Welcome & Introduction
10.40am	Louise Cumbley	The Clinical Psychology Response to the COVID 19 Pandemic in Scotland
10.55am	Q&A
11.00am	James Anderson	The Response to COVID 19 in NHS Grampian and Neuropsychology
11.15am	Q&A
11.20am	Louise MacDonald & Lyndsay Broadfoot	Resilience, recovery and reconnection: Glasgow Psychological Services response to the COVID 19 pandemic.
11.40am	Q&A
11.50am	Noreen Tehrani	Taking trauma work home: Advice for reducing secondary trauma during the CV-19 Pandemic and
12.10pm	Q&A
12.25pm	Break out	Breakout activity – move to Zoom Meeting Platform as per joining instructions email
12.45pm 12.50pm	Return from breakout	Feedback from each breakout group
1 pm	Lunch
1.30 pm	Janet Fraser Event Chair	Welcome back & re-cap/what's coming up
1.40pm	Vivien Swanson	Health Psychology in the time of COVID-19
2 pm	Q&A
2.10pm	Liz Gilchrist	Adapting forensic practice in the times of Covid-19: a Scottish perspective
2.25pm	Q&A
2.35pm	Liza Morton	We need to develop a psychologically informed framework to support those most vulnerable from Covid-19

2.55pm	Q&A
3.05pm	Panel
3.20pm	Jason Bohan	A few words from Scottish Branch
3.25pm	Janet Fraser/Event Chair	Wrap up/ final remarks/close