Papers of Psychology Institutions

Sources:

This resource does not claim to be authoritative as it is based mostly upon publicly available resources and we appreciate that new material is being acquired, catalogued and made available all the time. This document has been compiled from:

- BPS History of Psychology Centre's HoPC archive catalogue;
- Online searches using the National Archives Discovery, Archives Hub and AIM25 websites
- Some online searches of institutions not currently on these resources.

We take no responsibility for the accuracy of the descriptions of collections on these resources,

We aim to keep as up to date as possible, but please let us know if you think collections are missing contact hopc@bps.org.uk

BPS HoPC Collections

The majority of BPS collections are housed at the Wellcome Library, which is open to the public. Other collections are held at BPS London Office in Taberacle Street. All of BPS HoPC Collections are on the HoPC Archive Catalogue with BPS Reference Numbers e.g. [BPS/004/1/04], Items on loan to Wellcome have an additional Wellcome Reference Number e.g. [PSY/BPS/4/1/4], and are also viewable on the Wellcome catalogue. When requesting items direct from Wellcome, use the Wellcome Reference Number; you may find it useful to look at both catalogues.

Notes

The term 'psychological' is interpreted broadly to include institutions of relevant cognate disciplines. All reference numbers preceded by GB refer to the Archives Hub 'Reference and contact details'.
