

Tomorrow's Teens: Educational Psychology in Action

Cardiff University, South Wales
Friday 20 March 2020

Register at:

www.bps.org.uk/events/tomorrow's-teens-educational-psychology-action

The Division of Educational & Child Psychology (DECP) are organising a CPD event to hear from psychologists and researchers about how we can support secondary school-aged children. Focusing on enhancing knowledge about the developing teenage brain, promoting adolescent wellbeing and the role of educational psychologists in understanding and working with children involved in or 'at risk' of being involved in gangs.

Confirmed keynote speakers

Dr John Coleman OBE – Visiting Professor at the University of Bedfordshire

Dr Dean Burnett – Honorary Research Associate at Cardiff Psychology School, and Visiting Industry Fellow at Birmingham City University.

Further speakers

Dr Christopher Arnold – Educational Psychologist who has worked with vulnerable young people for more than 30 years

Dr Tom Boden – recent doctorate graduate from Birmingham University

Dr Ian Smillie – Senior Educational Psychologist, Gwent Attachment Service

Dr Katy Donnelly – Clinical Psychologist, Gwent Attachment Service

Leila Phillips – Teacher, Monmouthshire PRS

Delegate fees

Non-members: £60.00

BPS members: £50.00

DECP members: £40.00

Concession: £30.00

