Letters of support will be shared with the nominee and publicly following the process and should include:

1. Specific examples where the mentor/mentee remained involved in your professional development or on an ongoing basis after your relationship started.
2. How they handle stress or setbacks involving mentees.
3. How valuable you have found your relationship with your mentor to be.
4. How they intervened to help you make specific decisions regarding your academic or career path, or offered counsel in specific situations.
5. How you were able to incorporate their feedback or advice in meaningful ways, or any personal growth you saw during your relationship.

Letters of nomination and letters of support should not include any information that is confidential or may be in breach of data protection law.

5) * Please provide letters of support (no more than one page of A4 each) from individuals who can describe the nature of the mentoring received from the nominee. These are essential and weigh heavily. They will be shared with the nominee and publicly following the process. Please review the nomination guidance on the website for details on what should be included.
