

BPS Division of Occupational Psychology

Equality Diversity and Inclusion Task and Finish Group (EDI-TFG)

Member

Role and remit

The EDI-TFG Member plays a full role by participating in group meetings and collaborating with other group members on agreed activities between meetings in order to meet the terms of reference for the short-life group.

Group members will bring a range of knowledge, skills, insight and experience to the work undertaken by the group.

Person specification

The EDI-TFG member will meet the following expectations:

- Be a DOP Member
- Have an interest in EDI and be motivated to use abilities and strengths to achieve positive improvement with respect to disadvantage and inclusion
- Act at all times as excellent ambassador for EDI
- Be able to take part in regular zoom meetings facilitated by the EDI TFG Lead and work on agreed tasks for the EDI-TFG
- Contribute ideas, knowledge, skills and experience to the work of the EDI-TFG
- Demonstrate an ability to work collaboratively with colleagues, be able to listen to different perspectives, enabling others to express their view as well as own view
- Be familiar with the domain of occupational psychology and how this might relate to the work of the EDI-TFG
- Understand and work within the EDI-TFG Terms of Reference
- Understand and be able to operate effectively as role holder within BPS structures, policies and regulations, including the Society's stated objectives for EDI.