

BPS Division of Occupational Psychology

Wellbeing and Work Interest Stream

Co-ordinating Team

Member

Role and remit

The CT Member plays a full role by participating in planning meetings and collaborating with other group members on agreed activities and delivery of activities between meetings in order to meet the terms of reference for the interest stream.

Group members will bring a range of knowledge, skills, insight, and experience to the work undertaken by the CT

Person specification

The CT member will meet the following expectations:

- Be a DOP Member
- Be knowledgeable or have advanced/expert knowledge about the interest stream's area of interest (i.e., wellbeing and work) as a practitioner, academic and/or researcher and be motivated to use abilities and strengths to make a positive contribution to activities that add value and benefit for DOP members
- Be able to take part in zoom meetings facilitated by the CT Lead and work on agreed tasks for the CT
- Contribute ideas, knowledge, skills, and experience to the work of the CT
- Demonstrate an ability to work collaboratively with colleagues, be able to listen to different perspectives, enabling others to express their view as well as own view
- Understand and work within the CT Terms of Reference
- Understand and be able to operate effectively as role holder within BPS structures, policies, and regulations, including the Society's stated objectives for EDI.
- Be an excellent ambassador for the DOP.