

Full membership of a Division

Frequently asked questions

What are the benefits of Full membership of a Division?

Full membership of a Division provides a more relevant membership experience. Division members receive regular newsletters from the Division, are informed of relevant events or conferences and can keep up to date with developments in their chosen discipline.

Who is this form for?

It's for current Chartered members looking to apply for Full membership of a Division.

To join as a Chartered member of the Society and Full member of a Division you can do so from;

www.bps.org.uk/chartered

Am I eligible for Full membership?

If you've completed Society- accredited postgraduate training course in one of the applied areas such as a DClinPsy or one of the Society's qualifications you are eligible for Full membership of that Division.

How much do I need to pay?

Fees differ depending on the Division you join and are shown on page 2.

To submit your application please email - membership@bps.org.uk – it's useful to include your membership number in the subject field of the email.
